30 days of good things, written down.

Both circles count the same. Missed a day? Just answer today's question. Miss once, never twice.

Gratitude doesn't cancel the hard things. It sits next to them.

A Gratitude Letter

To someone you never properly thanked. Sending it is optional. Reading it to them in person is the strongest version.

With thanks, _____

Three good things I'd never have noticed	Who I'll thank in person	One thing I'll keep doing in January
